

Congressional
HEALTH CARE REFORM
Education Project

Supported by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation

Program for next Tuesday, October 21

Health care delivery: Access and quality

Robert Graham, MD, University of Cincinnati and Chairman of the Board of Alliance for Health Reform, will be moderating

Health care delivery: Data on current issues and programs related to access and quality

- Robert Graham, MD, University of Cincinnati School of Medicine (in the morning House session only)
- Fitzhugh Mullan, MD, The George Washington University School of Public Health and Health Services (in the afternoon Senate session only)

Primary care and medical home

- Eugene Rich, MD, Creighton University School of Medicine

Quality-related payments: Existing programs and options for reform

- Mark Miller, PhD, MedPAC

10 a.m. – 12 noon – Rayburn 2322
1 - 3 p.m. – Reserve Officers Association, 1st and Constitution NE

